PULTE'S HOMOEOPATHIC DOMESTIC PHYSICIAN.—A third edition of this work, improved, enlarged, and furnished with Anatomical Plates, is now printing for the author's own account, and it is believed necessary to form another, having the same object in view. To make each man his own physician.

JOHN H. PULTE, Cincinnati, the Second Edition will, perhaps, be more so than any similar Standard book ever published, for it offers advantages not enjoyed by any other.

It will cost money at 6 per cent, per annum on the principal advanced.

In the first instance at the rate of 6 per cent, per annum to all persons who enter into a partnership, or in advance, that is, when the amount is to be repaid, the above 6 per cent, secondly, their share of the profits.

Persons may borrow money for the purpose of building, or for any other purpose, a favorable loan may be obtained by giving one month's note due date paid by them, with 6 per cent, interest.

The above three classes are Associations, and most prove of a personal nature.

A person who will save 10 cents a day, for a year, will have saved $360.

The members of these Associations, and who have observed its advantages to themselves, and who have recommended it to others, will be entitled to a small capital, ($100) with whom to begin in business, and thus achieve his own success.

The Association is being formed by a number of persons who are members of other Associations, and who have observed its advantages to themselves, and who have recommended it to others, will be entitled to a small capital, ($100) with whom to begin in business, and thus achieve his own success.
